

Call to artists: dialogs from the hART: a visual commentary on the 2016 election cycle

Accepting submissions for art exhibit to be held January 5th – March 28th at The Bakery.

The theme for this exhibit is on the 2016 election cycle; how you feel about it, how you see reactions in the community, the direction you feel the country is going, can we survive as a whole, etc... art that reflects all viewpoints is encouraged. The intent is to encourage respectful dialogs surrounding the 2016 election cycle by first visually experiencing what others feel in their hearts.

Open to all artists in Sioux Falls and surrounding area.

All artists are encouraged to submit one or two pieces. Outsider art is encouraged. You must also include a short (no more than two paragraphs) bio and a 2 – 3 sentence description of each piece, including price if for sale. All pieces sold must remain up for the duration of the show.

Each artist must reply with intent to participate by December 20th, 2016 by emailing sam.lopez_64@yahoo.com with 'Exhibit' in the subject line, or by calling Sam Lopez at 605-254-5211. Art may be dropped off at the Bakery starting Jan 1st, yet no later than 5pm on January 3rd.

Art must be presented in a manner ready to hang; dry and framed, or edged in a way that is finished. Make sure you have wire or bracket hangers attached when you drop off your piece.

The open house will be January 20th from 7pm – 10pm. All artists showing are encouraged to attend.

Any questions please direct to Sam Lopez at 605-254-5211.
