

City of Sioux Falls
Rotational Art Display at City Hall
Request for Artwork (RFA)
July 1, 2020

The City of Sioux Falls is committed to promoting the arts by exhibiting the works of talented artists who contribute greatly to the health and vitality of our community, through the Rotational Art Display at City Hall. Featuring public art in City Hall gives local artists an opportunity to display their talents to the community and visitors, and gives visitors an opportunity to learn more about the unique cultural identity of Sioux Falls via the medium of visual art.

The City of Sioux Falls, with support from the Sioux Falls Arts Council and the City's Visual Arts Commission, invites artists to submit proposals for the Rotational Art Display at City Hall. Proposals will be reviewed and selected once per year, and displays will be updated twice per year based on those selections. The City, with support from the Sioux Falls Arts Council, has budgeted a stipend for selected artists, demonstrating their commitment to the value of artwork and artists in our community.

Goals of the Program

- To communicate and promote "One Sioux Falls" core values:
Safety: Protecting quality of life.
Teamwork: Collaborating to serve.
Innovation: Driving growth and development.
Character: Doing the right thing.
Respect: Honoring the dignity of others.
- To showcase the unique talents of artists in our community
- To enrich visitors' experiences by exposing them to diverse artistry
- To beautify and/or enhance the City Hall interior
- To foster engagement and communication, and broaden understanding and perspectives through art

The City to approve final artwork selections based upon recommendations received from the Selection Committee.

Selection Process

A Selection Committee, composed of at least one representative of the City, one representative of the Sioux Falls Arts Council, one member of the Visual Arts Commission, and one professional working in the local arts community will review and select the artwork for the year. Selections will be made based on the demonstrated ability to uplift the goals and themes outlined in the RFA, meet the above criteria, and the ability for the artwork to be properly installed (based on medium, size, weight and mounting requirements). The art selection committee will review submissions and notify selected artists by August 3, 2020 for the next two display rotations.

Submittal Process

When submitting art for consideration, artists must:

- Read, complete, and sign the City's Rotational Art Application and Agreement
- Provide an artist bio in a doc. or PDF format
- Provide a document notifying of submitted artwork titles and sizes
- Provide digital photos or images of the artwork:
 - Images must be less than 8MB ea, and in pdf, jpg, tiff or psd format
 - Submit up to six (6) images
- All completed materials must be submitted electronically via amford@artssiouxfalls.org, or through the Sioux Falls Arts Council website at www.artssiouxfalls.org
