

Prospectus for Avera Prairie Center Rotating Art Gallery

Mission:

The exhibit is on display in the Rotating Art Gallery located in the Quarry lounge area at the Avera Prairie Center. Our intention is to shed light on the human experience, contribute healing qualities to the Prairie Center environment, and offer patients, care givers and staff a visual reference point for reflections while they are our guests.

Eligibility:

Open to all professional artists working in any medium.

Entry:

- Submissions of artwork should be emailed to carol.rogers@avera.org
- Preferably only submitted artworks for review will be accepted.
- Upon acceptance of artwork, artist will select rotation schedule and complete artist agreements and responsibilities forms provided by Avera.

Restrictions:

- Only hanging artwork will be accepted.
- Artwork must be under 50lbs.
- Images and content of artwork must comply with our guidelines and mission.

Delivery and Retrieval:

- Artist is fully responsible for delivery and retrieval of artwork at the Avera Prairie Center.
- Artwork, packaging, containers will not be stored at the Avera Prairie Center.

Insurance:

- Artist is fully responsible for any insurance of artwork during transit as well as during exhibition.
- While utmost care is given to all artworks, Avera does not assume liability for damage or loss during exhibit.

Sale of Artwork:

- Artist is allowed to sell artwork displayed in the gallery.
- All inquiries about purchasing artwork will be forwarded directly to the artist.
- Avera will not negotiate sale of artwork and does not receive a stipend from sold artwork.
- Artist may make a donation from sale of artwork directly to the Avera Foundation.